Taseko's Donations and Community Investment Program

At Taseko, we are driven to unlock true value. We believe through our work that we can create 360° of value – value for our employees, their families, our operating communities, and many others!

Through our Beyond Potential Donations and Community Investment Program, Taseko focuses on initiatives that deliver enduring opportunities, and contribute to building healthy and sustainable communities near our operations.

Taseko believes in making a meaningful impact through sponsorships, charitable giving, community investment, partnerships, and volunteer programs. Through the collective efforts of Taseko and our operations, Gibraltar Mine and Florence Copper, we are committed to supporting sustainable initiatives that empower people and communities to achieve their true value.

Our priorities include:

Health and Wellness

Education

Social & Community Development

Potential

Funding Application Requirements:

Consideration is given to community or charitable programs, projects and initiatives that meet the following principles:

- Delivers direct, tangible, on-the-ground support
- Provides long-term and enduring support beyond the life of the mine/project
- Creates value and additional opportunities for the community and its members
- Builds towards a sustainable and healthy community
- Involves Taseko employees or their families in program delivery
- Provides an opportunity to offer in-kind assistance (eg. use of Taseko meeting facilities, access to communication networks, and business-related expertise and skills)
- Aligns with Taseko's Corporate values: Resourceful, Honest, Purposeful and Committed

We will not consider applications for the following:

- Retroactive requests
- Individual person or team, rather than an organization (except in exceptional circumstances)
- Funding of operating costs (salaries, utilities and overhead costs)
- Initiatives or Programs that create dependency on our support
- Initiatives where there is no clear identification of how the money will be spent
